APPENDIX A – LIST OF AVAILABLE EXAM ACCOMMODATIONS (EXAM SUPPORTS)

The table below outlines accommodations available to support individuals writing their SkilledTradesBC exam.

Accommodation Option	Description
Blue overlay	A plastic, blue-coloured overlay is provided, which may have a calming effect or help with reading challenges.
Increased font size	The exam is printed in larger font, which may assist with reading comprehension or impaired vision.
Straight edge	The candidate is provided a straight edge, which may help with the reading of an exam or blocking of exam questions.
Earplugs	The candidate is provided foam earplugs, which may help block out noise and distractions during the exam
Language dictionary	The candidate is permitted to bring a language dictionary during the exam, that translates words from English to their language of choice. The dictionary may not provide definitions but only direct, word-to-word translations. NOTE: The candidate must supply their own language dictionary for use.
Sign language interpreter (SkilledTradesBC or Self-provided)	The candidate may have a sign language interpreter attend the exam to sign the contents of the written exam. NOTE: A candidate using a sign language interpreter is provided a one-hour time extension and a private room to complete their exam. If this option is chosen, SkilledTradesBC will contact the candidate to discuss details of this support.
Translator (Self-provided)	The candidate may have a translator attend the exam and verbally translate the written exam into the candidate's chosen language. NOTE: A candidate using a translator is provided a one-hour time extension and a private room to complete their exam. If this option is chosen, SkilledTradesBC will contact the candidate to discuss details of this support. Translators must be supplied by the candidate and the candidate must provide a completed Translator/Reader Declaration form with the application. The form can be found at https://skilledtradesbc.ca/exam-accommodations
